

Well the dates for The Moroccan Trek have been set, and what an amazing 15 days this will be.

We will meet in Casablanca on the 29th October 2023 at the Radisson Blu Hotel.

Our trip starts on the evening of the 29th October in Casablanca and finishes on the 12th November.
From the 28th October onwards we will have the bus available to pick you up at the Casablanca airport.

The 15 days are designed around Trekking, with 4 days in the high Atlas Mountains, 3 days in the Sahara Desert, 2 days Valley of the Roses, 2 days Marrakesh, 2 days Fes,
Accommodation will be 50% tent camping and mountain lodges and 50% 5 star Riads/hotels.
On the days we are in the city a specialist guide will take us on walking tours, explaining the culture and history of the area, so there won't be a lot of sitting still.

The journey begins with 2 nights in Casablanca, then on to Marrakesh for two nights. We will then spend 4 days in the High Atlas mountains, traversing the valleys and the high passes as we head towards the Valley of the Roses for a further two days of exploring this ancient land.

From there we move on to 3 days in the Sahara Desert, trekking the dunes with camels, staying in luxury nomadic tents, a quiet sanctuary, where you will experience authentic Moroccan cuisine under millions of stars.

The last place we visit is Fes and what a place this is, often referred to as the country's cultural capital, the walled Medina, a World Heritage Site, is a labyrinth of vibrant alleyways full of amazing artisans, fabulous food, medieval architecture and historic monuments that stretch back hundreds of years.

We return to Casablanca on the 12th November to meet up with your flight or drop you off at your hotel.

The Temperature range will be 7C to 27C

The two main things you will need to bring is a warm compact Sleeping bag and Walking sticks.
We will talk more about what to bring a little later.

Cost is: Aud $6,500 per person for all on ground costs for 15 days.

We supply all Accommodation and Food, all Trekking costs, a Luxury 18 seat bus with full time driver, tours and entry fees, Specialist guides where needed, Adventure and Fun
What we don't supply: Airfares, Alcohol, and your personal travel insurance.

The group size will be around the 10 plus guides, and donkey and camel handlers.

This will certainly be an adventure trip with a twist of the good life in a breathtaking part of the world
