

A Moroccan Adventure

April 2024

Well the magical Morocco beckons again with another great adventure into a mystical land, and what an amazing 15 days this will be.

We will meet in Casablanca on the 15th April and finish in Rabat on the 29th April 2024

The Radisson Blu Hotel in Casablanca is the starting point.

We will pick you up at the airport.

The 15 days are designed around a little Trekking and lots of touring with 3 days in the high Atlas Mountains, 3 days in the Sahara Desert, 2 days Valley of the Roses, 2 days Marrakesh, 2 days Fes 2 days Chefchaouen.

Accommodation will be a combination of mountain lodges and 4 & 5 star Riads/hotels.

In the Sahara it will be luxury glamping and riding camels in the mighty dunes with nights of a million stars where you will experience authentic Moroccan cuisine and culture.

We will have a 20 seat luxury bus for the 12 of us, the group size will be 10 people maximum, the other two are myself and my very trusted co guide Omar

On the days we are in the city a specialist guide will take us on walking tours, explaining the culture and history of the area, so there won't be a lot of sitting still.

Places like Fes are hard to explain only your eyes and brain can soak it all up, what a place this is. Often referred to as the country's cultural capital, the walled Medina, a World Heritage Site, is a labyrinth of vibrant alleyways full of amazing artisans, fabulous food, medieval architecture and historic monuments that stretch back hundreds of years.

Chefchaouen is also a bit of a head spin, the blue city full of the alternative life and strange happenings, a must see for sure. The other villages and towns we visit like Marrakech are folk law that just about everyone has heard a story or a tall tail about and it won't disappoint.

We return to Casablanca on the 29th April to meet up with your flight or drop you off at your hotel.

The two main things you will need to bring is a warm compact Sleeping bag and Walking sticks.

The Temperature range will be 7C to 25C We will talk more about what to bring a little later.

Cost is: AUD $6,800 per person for all on ground costs for 15 days.

We supply all Accommodation and Food, all Trekking costs, a Luxury 20 seat bus with full time driver, tours and entry fees, Specialist guides where needed, Adventure and Fun

What we don't supply: Airfares, Alcohol, and your personal travel insurance.

The group size will be around the 10 plus guides, and donkey and camel handlers.

This will certainly be an adventure trip with a twist of the good life in a breathtaking part of the world.
